or for a non-approval code a Start-Up account is opened.

The individual is processed through the other required non-documentary verification list.

CIP issues learned after the loan has been booked and funds disbursed, are referred to the designated person in the Houston office. Discrepancies on each account will be addressed on an individual basis to resolve the issues. We will attempt to contact the member via telephone and in writing if necessary to resolve the outstanding issues.

Direct Lending including Credit Cards

When processing any type of loan, consumer or real estate, including credit cards and the joint applicant, co maker or cosigner is not already on the account or have a MTFCU account in their own name then the subsequent procedures will be followed.

The employee will review the OFAC result on the credit bureau report for passed or failed. If the result is failed then staff will follow established OFAC procedures and stop processing loan/credit card request.

Employee will follow CIP procedures by requesting one primary form of identification and one non-documentary form of identification such as the credit report. If there are, any discrepancies or the employee is not comfortable with the identification documents presented then the employee should request further documentation listed under primary, secondary and non-documentary identification.

If there is a lack of insufficient identification documentation or the employee is still not comfortable with the identification documentation presented then the employee will get with their manager for further consideration or management approval.

When Not to Open Account:

- Generally, the credit union shall not open an account if the credit union is unable to verify the true identity of the individual.

- Generally, the credit shall not accept any expired forms of primary or secondary forms of identification.
- If the credit union is unfamiliar with documents presented; the documents must be verified before opening an account
- If the credit union is presented with an increased risk if the account were to be opened

Lack of Verification:

In an unusual circumstance the credit union may open an account without the normally required documents. Management approval is required to deviate from established opening procedures. Such approval shall be noted on the signature card. The account shall be subject to Regulation CC, new account holds and new account processing under the Membership & Account Agreement.

Closing An Account:

The credit union shall close the account by the 30th day after attempts to verify the identity have failed. The account holder shall be notified in writing via certified/return receipt requested mail prior to the 30th day the account is to be closed due to non- verification of identification.

Freezing and Blocking An Account:

Upon notification, the credit union shall block and/or freeze the assets of an account holder within ten (10) days and comply with applicable instructions/regulations of such governmental agency.

Suspicious Activity Report (SAR):

SAR shall be generated by the credit union if:

- The true identity of an individual cannot be determined before or after opening an account
- Unusual account activity
- In accordance with applicable law and regulation

The member services representative/teller should be alert and watch out for:

- Large cash deposits.
- $100 in cash followed by large checks.
- Mismatched identification of names and addresses.
- Inconvenient credit union location. Why are they opening an account with us at this location?
- Out of state license.
- Working out of state.
- Third party checks to open accounts.
- Any transaction that involves or aggregates more than $5,000 when the credit union knows, suspects, or has reason to suspect the transaction.
- Evades any requirements of any regulations set forth under the Bank Secrecy Act.
- Involves funds derived from illegal activities, or is intended to hide funds or assets derived from illegal activities as part of a plan to violate or evade federal law or regulation, or to avoid any CTR requirement.
- Offers no business or apparent lawful purpose or is not the sort in which the particular member would normally be expected to engage, and the credit union know, of no reasonable explanation for the transaction after examining the available facts, including the background and possible purpose of the transaction.
- Does not follow member's normal business patterns.
- Transaction cannot be explained reasonably after examining facts.
- When any known or suspected criminal violation has been committed against a credit union, regardless of the amount of money involved, if the credit union believes the violation was committed by an "insider", (i.e., a director, officer, employee, agent or other institution affiliated part.)
- When any known or suspected criminal violation has been committed against a credit union by an "insider," regardless of the amount.
- A member who asks about the limit on filing a CTR and makes a transaction in an amount just under $10,000.

- An individual desires to open an account without providing references, local address, valid identification, presentment of unusual or suspicious identification that the credit union cannot identify; or refuses to provide any other information necessary to open an account.
- Members or businesses that do not normally generate currency make numerous currency transactions; deposits or withdrawals.
- When any known or suspected criminal violation has been committed against a credit union involving $5,000 or more, if the credit union can identify a possible suspect who is not an insider.
- Whenever there is a transaction involving $25,000 or more, regardless whether any suspects have been identified. Burglary or Robbery is excluded if it is appropriately reported to local law enforcement authorities. Completed SAR forms are to be filed with the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN), Detroit Computing Center, PO Box 33980, Detroit, Mi. 48232.
- An intrusion into the computer system to remove or steal funds, and/or member account information.

The purpose of filing a SAR is to identify violations or potential violations of the law. A SAR is filed by the credit union as deemed appropriate. If the suspicious activity continues over a period of time, a general rule of thumb is that a SAR should be filed at least every 90 days. This will serve the purpose of notifying law enforcement of the continuing nature of the account activity.

Federal law prohibits the notification of any person that is involved in the account activity being reported on a SAR that the activity has been reported.

SAR rules require that a SAR be filed no later than 30 days from the date of the initial detection of the suspicious activity. If no suspect was identified at the time the credit union first discovers facts which might lead to the filing of an SAR, the filing can be delayed up to an additional 30 days.

Continuing suspicious activity on an account will be reported via a Suspicious Activity Report at least every 90 days. Management of the office where the Suspicious Activity Report is generated will coordinate with the VP of Audit and Compliance to monitor the account to determine if other actions may be appropriate, (i.e. when to close the account, notify law enforcement.)

The Board of Directors or appropriate board committee shall be notified when a Suspicious Activity Report (SAR) is filed. The Board of Directors or an appropriate board committee shall be notified at the next regularly scheduled meeting following the filing of a Suspicious Activity Report.

In the event there is an instance when a Suspicious Activity Report is related to an individual in the credit union, such as the president or one of the members' of the Board of Directors, then deviation from established reporting procedures to the board or appropriate board committee will be in effect. Other appropriate uninvolved senior management and board representative(s) or appropriate board committee shall be notified of the filed Suspicious Activity Report.

Members Trust of the Southwest Federal Credit Union Board of Directors, Supervisory Committee, Other Board Related Committee, Officer, Employee or third party correspondent relationship knows or is aware that a Suspicious Activity Report has been filed may not notify any person involved in the transaction that the transaction has been reported. Any person subpoenaed or requested to disclose a Suspicious Activity Report or to provide information contained in a Suspicious Activity Report, except when such disclosure is requested by FinCEN or an appropriate law enforcement or federal banking agency, shall decline to produce the Suspicious Activity Report or to provide any information that would disclose that a Suspicious Activity Report has been prepared or filed, citing 31 CFR 103.18(e) and U.S.C. 5318 (g)(2). In the event an individual is requested to provide Suspicious Activity Report information, the credit union shall report this to FinCEN and NCUA.

The credit union is under Congress's Safe Harbor statute that provides protection to financial institutions from liability for good faith reporting.

IV. Member Identification Record Keeping System

Generally, active/open accounts will have a copy of the primary identification and TIN/social security card/W-9 attached to the signature card. The signature card shall contain name, address, date of birth, original signature and other relevant information about the individual. Active account signature cards are stored in the main office vault.

Signature cards for closed accounts are transferred to a permanent closed account signature card file. The closed account signature card file is maintained inside the vault at the main office. A copy of the member's identification, social security card, tax identification number or employer identification number will remain attached to the signature card in the closed account signature card file. This account information will be retained for five (5) years after the account has been closed.

Confirmation of government lists including but not limited to OFAC and other outside identification data sources such as CSC Credit Services Fraud Advisor and ID Advisor Plus shall be maintained by either paper copy, saved onto a disk or other electronic means of storage. This data shall be maintained for five (5) years after the account has been closed or becomes dormant.

Any measures undertaken to verify identification, and description of the resolution of any substantive discrepancy discovered shall be maintained for five (5) years after the record is made. Generally, this documentation shall be attached to the signature card or placed in the legal file located in the main vault.

V. Comparison With Government Lists

The credit union shall compare names with any lists of known or suspected terrorists or terrorist organizations issued by a federal governmental agency and designated as such by US Treasury in consultation with federal regulators.

A determination shall be made within a reasonable time after the account is opened, or earlier if required by federal law, regulation, or directive.

The credit union shall follow all federal directives issued in connection with such lists.

Initial new member identification shall be processed through CSC Credit Services, Inc.:

In the event a non- approval code, such as a “Code 4”, is given by TeleCheck only a Start-Up savings/checking account(s) may be opened. Account types for Start-Up savings and checking are 31 and 13 respectively.

OFAC Compliance applies to all persons subject to the Jurisdiction of the United States:

Includes American citizens and permanent resident aliens wherever they are located, individuals and entities located in the United States (including all foreign branches, agencies, Rep offices, etc.); corporations organized under US law, including foreign branches; and (under TWEA based sanctions) entities owned or controlled by any of the above, the most important being foreign-organized subsidiaries of the US corporations.

Example of Parties Subject to OFAC:

- Primary account holder.

- Joint account holder.
- Convenience account signer.
- Co-signers and Guarantors on loans.
- Collateral Owners.
- Beneficiaries Payable on Death parties.
- Parties on the other end of a wire transfer.
- Non-members cashing member checks drawn on their credit union account.
- Safe Deposit Box co-renter, deputy
- Credit card advances for non-members.
- Redemption of US Savings Bonds for non-members.

OFAC Alert and other governmental lists as required by law, regulation or directive shall be used to process individuals for new accounts and addition of account signatory.

The credit union's membership base is re-screened weekly by Galaxy-Fiserv against the national OFAC list to determine whether any Members Trust account holder is on the OFAC list. Designated credit union employee reviews the Galaxy-Fiserv OFAC report weekly. Reports are maintained in the main office.

Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons: Individuals and entities which are owned or controlled by, or acting for or on behalf of, the Governments of target countries or are associated with international narcotics trafficking or terrorism. These individuals and entities are listed on the Treasury Department's Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons list so that persons subject to the jurisdiction of the United States will know that they are prohibited from dealing with them and that they must block all property within their possession or control in which these individuals and entities have an interest.

The credit union responds in a timely manor to all Fin CEN requests through the FinCEN secure web page and follows their directives in the event there is a name match with our data base. A designated credit union employee compares our database with FinCEN suspicious individual(s) list. The teller initials and dates the printed report from FinCEN and then files the paperwork.

The most recent Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons (SDN) list is maintained at MTFCU through Galaxy. The SDN master alphabetical list is available at www.treas.gov/offices/enforcement/ofac/.

VI. Member (Customer) Notice

The credit union shall provide individuals with adequate notice that it is requesting information to verify their true identities. The credit union may, but not limited to, place a sign in the lobby of each credit union location, credit union website and/or other places deemed appropriate for the notice to appear.
