

Member Privacy Policy

FACTS What Does Members Trust of the Southwest FCU Do With Your Personal Information?

Why	Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.
What?	The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Social Security number and income - Account balances and payment history - Credit History and credit scores
How?	When you are not longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice. All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons Members Trust of the Southwest FCU chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons We can Share Your Personal Information	Does MTFCU Share?	Can you limit this Sharing?
For our Everyday business purposes – such as to process your transactions, maintain your accounts(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or to report to credit bureaus	Yes	No
For marketing purposes- To offer our products and services to you	Yes	No
For joint marketing with other financial companies	No	No
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes- information about your transactions and experiences	Yes	No
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes- information about your creditworthiness	Yes	No
For our affiliates to market to you	No	No
For our affiliates to market to you	No	No

What we do How does Members Trust of the Southwest protect my personal information?	To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.
--	--

How does Members Trust of the Southwest collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- open an accounts or deposit money
- pay your bills or apply for a loan
- use your credit or debit card

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you're the right to limit only:

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes
- information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing fro non-affiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give your additional rights to limit sharing

Definitions Affiliates

Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non financial companies

Non-Affiliates

Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial or non financial companies

Joint Marketing

A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products and services to you