Financial Tips for Car Buying

Technology has made it easy for members to explore local inventory and find available vehicles before they ever walk into a dealership. While people do their homework when it comes to the make and model, they often neglect to do the math:

Don't Just Start With the Car

Shopping for the car is usually the fun part, but it's important to start with a budget. One common mistake is thinking in terms of monthly payments, as opposed to the overall cost of the car.

Be Flexible

Try to be realistic about the features you need versus extras that you might want, but can live without. Additionally, auto loan pre-approval will help you start your car negotiations from a place of control.

Do Your Research

Your #1 tool is education, so be sure to use our auto center to research through millions of vehicles from the comfort of your home. Let us help you shop with confidence!
